

Ultimate Survival Instructor

Title: Course Instructor
Reporting to: Course Leader

Summary of Position:

The role of Ultimate Survival Instructor is to deliver outstanding, structured outdoor education activities and workshops to groups of children on our Ultimate Survival Courses. You will be expected to guide groups of children aged between 7 and 14 years through week-long courses, with the emphasis being on fun, excitement, team and skill development

Roles include accommodation (camping) either on or near the venue.

Duties and Responsibilities:

1. Prepare and deliver activities for children aged 7-14, focusing on participation, development, safety and enjoyment.
2. Encourage participation through enthusiasm and energy in scenarios and role play.
3. Ensure all policies and procedures on the courses are adhered to by yourself and the children in your care, including health and safety, and safeguarding procedures.
4. Help to set up The Ultimate Survival Camp by attending a Camp Induction Day and pack down the site at the end of the season.
5. Take a pastoral role as a group leader, supporting and caring for children throughout the week and during the weekly camp-out.
6. Supervision of children outside of activity times.
7. Other ad-hoc duties (cleaning, equipment maintenance etc.)
